RESTRICTION

- 1) Claims 1-17 are under prosecution.
- 2) Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, drawn to an immunostimulator comprising swine plasma, and an animal feed, a pharmaceutical, a food or beverage product, and an animal feed comprising the same, classified in class 530, subclass 830
 - II. Claims 9-17, drawn to a method of preventing infectious disease comprising administering the immunostimulator of invention I, classified in class 424, subclass 184.1
 - III. Claims 9-17, drawn to a method of preventing cancer comprising administering the immunostimulator of invention I, classified in class 424, subclass 277.1
- 3) Invention I is related to inventions II and III as product and processes of using the product. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process of using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (M.P.E.P 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the swine plasma of invention I can be used in a materially different process, for example, as a non-immunostimulator, i.e., as an immunoglobulin-containing prophylactic agent in passive immunotherapy, or as a diagnostic reagent.
- 4) Inventions I, II and III are distinct from one another. Invention I is drawn to a product, whereas inventions II and III are directed to methods that are distinct from one another in the in the disease or the clinical condition that is being prevented. Clearly, an infectious disease and cancer would require separate and non-coextensive searches.

Similarly, a search for swine plasma immunostimulator, and a search for method to treat cancer and infectious disease comprising administering swine plasma immunostimulator, are not coextensive. The search for invention II or invention III would require a text search for the method of prevention of cancer and infectious disease in addition to a search for swine plasma immunostimulator. Moreover, even if the swine plasma immunostimulator were known, the method, which uses the product, may be novel and unobvious in view of the preamble or active steps.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification/subclassification and divergent subject matter, and because the search required for each group is not required for the other groups since each group requires a different non-patent literature search due to each group comprising different clinical conditions to be prevented, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5) The Office has required restriction between product and process claims. Where Applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

6) In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. § 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See 'Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)', 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

7) Applicants are advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 C.F.R.

8) Applicants are reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under C.F.R. 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(h).

9) Papers related to this application may be submitted to Group 1600, AU 1645 by facsimile transmission. Papers should be transmitted via the PTO Fax Center, which receives transmissions 24 hours a day and 7 days a week.
